

John Q. Public is a highly respected insurance executive. He is a Senior Vice President with International Indemnity responsible for their Mergers and Acquisitions Department. After working for several Fortune 500 firms with oversight of their M&A functions; John was asked to join International Indemnity to head up their new department.

John is well-known for his expertise in the field of company consolidations; he has spoken extensively on the subject and has had several articles published. He was the recipient of the 2015 Corporate Consolidation Award.

John holds a Bachelor of Science in Business Administration from Hofstra University and an MBA from the Wharton School of Economics.

In his spare time, John works with the Big Brother organization as a mentor. He enjoys golf but admits he spends more time in the woods than in the fairway.